Re: Cubana Cigar Corporation International - Document No. P97000051273

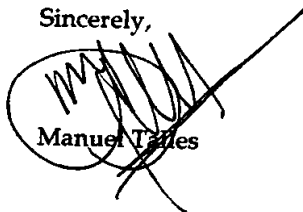

Dear Sir/Madam:

I recently received a Notice of Administrative Dissolution for the above-referenced corporation. When I called your offices to inquire as to why this notice had been sent, Mrs. Mitchell informed me that although I had mailed the 2001 Annual Report and payment on time, that some information was missing and that I had not responded to your Division's request for additional information.

I explained to Mrs. Mitchell that I never received any letter or request for any additional information. When I asked her what information had been requested, Mrs. Mitchell could also not determine what that was. It seems to be an error. She then asked that I simply explain the circumstances in this letter and that I submit same with the report and $150.00 timely filing fee (as attached hereto).

If you should require any additional information or need to contact me for any reason, please refer to the above address and phone number.

Sincerely,

Manuel Torres
