July 2, 1999

Dear Florida Department of State-Div. of Corporations,

I am writing to notify the proper department that my first notice of corporate annual report did not get delivered to my business.

We are on a training route for the US Post Office, and every now and again our mail is mis-delivered. I can only offer this as a possible reason for not receiving the first notice, I do not know for sure.

I called immediately upon receiving the second notice and was advised to send this letter, my annual report and a check immediately. I am doing so.

Thank you very much for honoring my unusual circumstances.

Sincerely,

Cheryl J. Evans
