Re: Bloomin Flowers, Inc. 65-0759843
Center for Youth & Family Counseling, Inc. 65-0759849

I am enclosing two separate checks for each corporation in the amount of $150.00 each. Please be advised that the original checks were paid in a timely manner before your deadline in May; however they were not located within your office nor were they cashed through my bank. The following is what occurred:

Checks were issued at the end of April. On May 8th, I called your department and spoke to someone who informed me that the State was running at least one month behind and "not to worry." On May 8th, I called again (since my checks hadn't cleared) and spoke with Tyron Scott who assured me that there was a delay and that the worst case that would happen is that I would need to send another check(s) for the initial amount. He said he would check further and call me back but he never did. I started following up with my bank again. On June 22nd, I called again and spoke with Marquita who directed me to check the website and look to see if my checks had cleared. At this point, I am certain they are either lost in the mail or within your office "someplace." Rather than be penalized, I am submitted additional checks for each of the above corporation.

Very truly yours,

Vicki Rubin
