To whom it may concern:

Per conversation with your reinstatement department it was necessary for us to write a letter explaining our situation. I'm personally currently applying for a mortgage for a property, as the lender verifies the status of the corporation it found that your record indicated the corporation as inactive. We send a letter informing you of an address change in November of 1999, however it seems that it was never processed. Now that I called the Division of Corporations I was informed that there is a fee to change the address, please note that I wasn't aware of it and perhaps that's reason why the letter was never processed. We never received our annual report or any remainder therefore we ask that you please consider waiving the late penalty-filing fee.

As instructed we are sending you an annual report and a check for $150.00.

Thanking you in advance and awaiting your response I remain.

Regards,
Anileidy, Inc.
