RE: Stephen W. Mraz
Document # P97000052170

Dear Sirs:

We are in receipt of your second notice on the Profit Corporation Annual Report received just the other day. Please be informed that this was the first notice we have received so the awareness of the liability was not known until after the May 1, 1998 deadline. You have our correct address and for some reason, we did not receive the first notice.

Please know that we are a new corporation, having opened operation in 1997 and with all the governmental regulation, it hard to be aware of all the filing requirements without proper notification, including from the Department of State.

It is our request, that due to the newness of this corporation and the financial hardship your penalty would impose, that you accept our check in the amount of $150.00 and remove any penalties involved.

If any questions arise, feel free to contact further. Your prompt attention to this matter is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Stephen W. Mraz
President
