Re: Florida Caption, Inc.
Char #: P97000053048

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am the accountant of the above Corporation and contacted your office last week to request a waiver of the penalties for the not filing of the past two annual reports.

Please note that the owners of the Corporation have never owned a Corporation before (plus they are from out of town). They were incorporated by a business that only incorporates. Apparently the incorporator designated themselves as the registered agent. They never forwarded the annual reports to the owners. The previous accountant never brought to their attention the fact that they had not paid the annual fees. Therefore, they remained completely in the dark.

This letter is to request that forgive the penalty based upon the reasonable cause that they relied upon their accountant and attorney.

In good faith we have enclosed a check in the amount in $450.00 to cover the two late reports and the current one. In addition, attached is a re-instatement form duly executed.

If you should have any question, please contact me at 305-358-3443.

Very truly yours,

Mary E. Prados
