To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is furnish pursuant to telephone conversation with your office pertaining to lost 1999 Corporation Annual Report.

The Corporation Annual Report for 1999, Document # P97000053964, was prepared and mailed to your office on April 26, 1999, along with check # 296 in the amount of $150.00. Upon receipt of the May bank statement, the above referenced check had not been presented against our account. Further inquiries with our bank revealed this check had not cleared during June and is apparently lost.

Enclosed is a copy of the Corporation Annual Report submitted and a replacement check for $150.00. Per instructions, I am requesting the abatement of any penalties.

If the copy of the original form is not satisfactory, please advise the undersigned and another original will be prepared.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
