To Whom it Concerns:

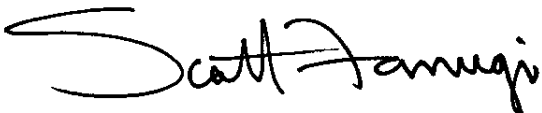

After meeting with my accountant last week, I realized that I'd not received my paperwork for renewal of my corporation, Farrugia Design, Inc. I assumed that you may not have received my change of address notice so I called your office. I spoke to someone there who informed me that my corporation was involuntarily dissolved last year for failure to file an annual report.

Certain that I had, indeed, sent in my paperwork in 2000, I checked my bank statements and noted that the check I had written and sent with the aforementioned paperwork has never cleared my account. Undoubtedly the U. S. Mail has it filed somewhere.

As per the conversation with your agent, I am humbly asking that you reinstate my corporation without penalty. I understand that this is the first and last time I may seek this without being penalized. Enclosed, please find a check for $300.00 and the required paperwork for my request.

Please call with any questions. Thank you for your prompt attention.

Sincerely yours,
