Dear Madam or Sir:

I would greatly appreciate your consideration in waving any penalty for late filing of this Uniform Business Report. I operate this business out of a small office located in the rear of a building containing other business. I have problems getting the postal carrier to deliver mail directly to my box, which is also in the rear of the building. I do not recall receiving your first mailing nor could I find a record of it in my office. As this is a true small business, any relief granted would be helpful.

Thank You,

Rick Hubley
