To Whom It May Concern:

It is not an easy thing for me to appeal to someone at all, much less someone that I do not know. Last year, I had all of my personal mail & that of my company forwarded to the home of a personal friend because of a situation at my family home. It appears that this was a poor judgment call. I have received few papers on time including important bills, notices, & company papers such as corporate reports. I see that my company has one address, while my registered agent, myself, has another.

I have had all my personal mail forwarded to the address that my company has in its paper & your records. I truly believe that my home situation will not interfere with, and will likely vastly improve the important communications that I need to receive via the mail.

My company is finally on the verge of getting some sales! Please do not dissolve it/me just as I am about to start to succeed. I have included the normal fees in the hopes that this will suffice. Please communicate with me & let me know.

Thank you,

Estanislao J Villatoro
