ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF DIRECT LEGAL SUPPORT SERVICES, INC.

The undersigned, desiring to form a corporation under the provisions of the laws of the State of Florida, hereby make, subscribe and acknowledge before a notary public, and file with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida, the following Articles of Incorporation for such corporation:

ARTICLE I - NAME

EFFECTIVE DATE
6-13-97

The name of the corporation is: Direct Legal Support Services, Inc.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

a. The general nature of the business to be conducted and carried on by the corporation is legal support services such as paralegal services, secretarial services, court reporting services, service of process, service of summons, and investigative work. b. To engage in every aspect and phase of each and every lawful business or operation permitted by the law of the State of Florida, including but not limited to the right and power to manufacture, distribute, purchase or otherwise acquire and to own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise acquire and to own mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, and to invest income, deal in and with goods, wares, merchandise, real and personal property, and services of every class, kind and description; except that it is not to conduct a banking, safe deposit, trust, insurance, surety, express, railroad, canal, telephone, telegraph or cemetery company, a building and loan association, mutual fire insurance association, cooperative association, fraternal benefit society, or state fair of exposition.

c. To purchase, take and lease, or exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, rights, or privileges suitable or convenient for any purposes of this business, and to purchase, acquire, erect and construct, make improvements of buildings or machinery stores or works, insofar as the same may be pertinent to or useful for the conduct of the business as above specified, but only to the extent to which the company may be authorized by the statutes under which it is organized.

d. To purchase, sell, pledge, subscribe or otherwise acquire and to hold the shares, stocks, bonds, divesture, features, options, commodities, puts and calls or obligations of any company organized under the laws of the State of Florida or of any other state or of any territory of the United States or of any foreign country, except monied or transportation, banking or insurance companies, and to sell or exchange the same, or upon the distribution of assets or divisions of profits, to distribute any such shares, stocks, obligations or proceeds thereof among the stockholders of this company.

e. The corporation shall have full power and lawful authority to issue, execute, assign and endorse notes, mortgages, bonds and other negotiable papers; to secure any indebtedness due it in the same manner common to natural persons. It shall have the full authority to loan money and secure the payment thereof by accepting mortgages, personal endorsements or assignments of personal property or other security. It may be sued, contract or be contracted with, and do any and all other acts necessary or incidental to the powers herein specifically designated.

f. To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind and description with any person, firm, association, corporation, municipality, county, state, body politic or government or colony or dependency thereof.

g. The foregoing shall be construed as independent businesses, and the enumeration of any specific business shall not restrict any other business of the corporation.

h. The corporation shall, in addition, have the power to carry on any other lawful business whatsoever in connection with the foregoing, which is calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interest of the corporation, or to enhance the value of its assets.

i. To do and perform and cause to be done or performed each, any and all of the acts and things above enumerated and any and all other acts and things insofar as the same may be incidental to or included in any or all of the general powers given, always provided that the grant of the foregoing enumerated powers is upon the express condition precedent that the various powers above enumerated shall be exercised by the acts above recited under which said company is organized, and the same shall be exercised by said company only in the manner and to the extent that the same shall be authorized to be exercised under the said acts above recited under which it was organized. The said corporation may perform any part of its business outside the State of Florida or in any other states or colonies of the United States or in any foreign country or countries.
