ARTICLE EIGHT- INCORPORATORS

The name and address of each incorporator is:

Name	Address
Alan Grosman	13005 Biscayne Drive, N. Miami FL 33181

ARTICLE NINE- RESTRICTION ON STOCK TRANSFER

No shareholder shall have the right to sell, assign, pledge, encumber, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any of the shares of the corporation without first offering such shares for sale to the corporation. Such offer shall be in writing, signed by the shareholder, sent by registered or certified mail to the corporation at its principal place of business and remain open for acceptance by the corporation for a period of thirty days from the date of mailing. If the corporation fails or refuses within such period to make satisfactory arrangements for the purchase of such shares, the shareholder shall have the right to dispose of his or her shares as he or she may see fit.

The value of stock for purposes of transfer shall be determined as per Article 10 of this document.

On the death of any shareholder, the corporation shall have the right to purchase all shares owned by such shareholder immediately prior to his or her death on the terms set forth above, and this provision shall be binding on the executor, administrator, or personal representative of each shareholder.

Each share certificate issued by the corporation shall have printed or stamped on it the following legend: "These shares are held subject to certain transfer restrictions imposed by the articles of incorporation of the corporation. A copy of such articles is on file at the principal office of the corporation."

ARTICLE TEN- VALUATION OF SHARES

Any holder of stock, any executor or administrator of any decedent holder of stock, any purchaser of any share or shares of stock sold on execution or at any judicial sale, and any pledgee of any share or shares of stock shall deliver to the president or treasurer of the corporation written notice of any desire to sell, transfer, or foreclose on such shares, designating the number of shares to be sold, transferred, or foreclosed, as the case may be, the number of the certificate or certificates, and the name and residence address of a certified public accountant who shall act as an appraiser.

The president and treasurer or the board of directors of the corporation shall within ten days after delivery of such notice select another certified public accountant as an appraiser and give written notice of his or her name and residence address to the person desiring to make such sale, transfer, or foreclosure and to the appraiser appointed by him or her; the two appraisers selected shall, within ten days after giving the last named notice, select a third appraiser who shall be experienced in the business of loaning money or in banking and who shall reside or be engaged in business in the county in which the general administrative office of the corporation is located; and they shall at once notify both parties in writing of the name and residence address of the third appraiser.

If the two appraisers selected shall not within ten days select a third appraiser, either party may apply on five days written notice to the other, to any judge of any court of general jurisdiction in the above-mentioned county for the appointment of such third appraiser.

The three appraisers selected shall within ten days after the selection of the third appraiser, appraise such share or shares proposed to be sold, transferred, or foreclosed and the majority of them shall determine their value as of the time of such appraisal and shall give written notice of their determination to both parties.

The appraisal shall take place at the general administrative office of the corporation and the appraisers shall notify both parties in writing of the time when the appraisal will be made; each party shall pay the expenses and fees of the appraiser selected by him, her, or it and one-half of the expenses and fees of the third appraiser.

The board of directors shall have the option, for ten days after receipt by the corporation of written notice of the determination of the appraisers, of purchasing the share or shares for the corporation at the appraised value. Payment for any such share or shares may be made by the board by depositing the appraised value to the credit of such shareholder, executor, administrator, grantee, assignee, or pledgee, as the case may be, in any bank in Broward County, Florida, to be paid to such person by the bank on the surrender of the certificate or certificates for the share or shares of stock properly endorsed; the board shall give written notice of the deposit to the seller.

No transfer of stock shall be valid, until fifteen days after the corporation, through its secretary, shall have had written notice of the proposed sale, the number of shares proposed to be sold, the price at which the proposed sale is to be made, and the name of the prospective buyer. During such fifteen days, the corporation shall have the option to buy, at the price set by seller, any shares of outstanding stock before its owner, or the person in whose name it stands on the books of the corporation, may transfer them. Should the corporation not have the funds to buy the shares, or should it deem it undesirable to purchase them for any other reason, another existing shareholder shall have the option, for an additional ten days, of purchasing the shares at the price set by the seller in proportion to the number of shares then held by the shareholder. If not exercised within this time, any sale to third persons shall be valid.

Executed by the undersigned at Fort Lauderdale, Florida on June 12, 1997.
