Re: Late Filings

To whom it may concern. I spoke to a gentleman in your office today regarding the following problem, which he instructed me to enclosed checks in the amount of $150.00 for each active corporation.

Please consider the following. We are an active corporation, which has relocated our offices. Through the process of moving, the Postal Service has failed to forward from your office, making the prompt payment of these filings impossible. In fact, the new tenants of our previous location forwarded these to us this last week. We sincerely hope that you will understand that these circumstances were out of our control and accept the untimely arrival of this document with amounts enclosed.

Your kindness and generosity are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Laurie Lee Clark
