To Whom It May Concern:

Pursuant to our conversation with your office on November 9, 2001, concerning our corporation, enclosed please find the corporation reinstatement form, along with the original filing fee for $150.

We are a new owner of the corporation and have undergone a corporate name change. We did not receive the original filing form. As this is our first year in business, we were unaware there was a registration form required to be filed each year. Please process this reinstatement form as soon as possible.

We are now aware of the filing requirements for our corporation and we will make sure the proper forms are timely filed in the future.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Marcia Davis

Re. Renny Bryden, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have recently received notice that this corporation has been involuntarily dissolved due to failure to file the Florida Uniform Business Report for 2001.

I have no record of receiving prior correspondence, forms, or notifications. I suspect it's because my mail was evidently being sent to Key Largo, FL not Largo, FL.

Accordingly I enclose herewith a completed UBR form for 2001, along with a check in the amount of $150.00, and with the request that penalties be waived due to the circumstances.

Sincerely,

Karen (Renny) Bryden
President
