or registration of transfer of shares shall be to maintain the corporation's status because it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders, including but not limited to preserving exemptions under the Internal Revenue Service laws as well as the close management relation between the founders of the corporation proper to protect the corporation against outside control, in accordance with Chapter 607.0627, Florida Statutes.

In the event any shareholder ceases to be a shareholder of the corporation or reduces her holding of the shares of the corporation, by voluntary transfer or otherwise, the corporation shall, as appropriate, terminate or procure a proportionate reduction in the face amount of insurance outstanding on the life of such shareholder, and in the event any shareholder increases her holding of the shares of the corporation, the corporation shall procure and maintain additional insurance on the life of such shareholder proportionate to the increase in the holdings of such shareholder.

In the event that a shareholder offers for sale shares whether to the corporation or another shareholder under the terms of this Article, the price of such shares shall be fixed as herein follows. The shares shall be sold/purchased at their book value determined by the net equity of the company at the time. Then an additional fifteen percent (15%) shall be paid above the previously described value determined. This shall apply only after the corporation has been in existence for more than one (1) year and the shareholder has maintained their ownership in the shares for the same period. This percentage shall increase to twenty percent (20%) after two years providing that all the previous conditions described in this paragraph are observed or exist. This paragraph's terms are of no validity in the event of a complete liquidation. The Board of Directors may dispense with this requirement upon proper majority vote.

ARTICLE IX - SHARES ISSUED FOR SERVICES AS CONSIDERATION

The corporation may issue shares or options to shares to an employee and the Board of Directors of this corporation shall be authorized to enter into an agreement with any employee or to issue shares or options to shares to any employee or other person rendering services of any kind whether for currency, property, or services rendered. In the case of options to purchase shares of the corporation these may apply to future services to the corporation. This Article's provisions are subject to all other restrictions wherever located within these Articles of Incorporation.

The corporation may grant its employees or other service-rendering person or entity an option to purchase its stock at a bargain price, either by individual agreement or under the general terms of this Article. Any shares granted under an option shall protect any preemptive rights of existing shareholders. The purpose for these options shall be to obtain or keep the services of employees for the corporation, by selling its stock at a bargain price. The corporation must be assured that the services of any employee obtaining an option will continue for a period of time of a year or more.

MARTIN ALKHEZILY & ASSOCIATES, INC., Articles of Incorporation

The Board of Directors shall be authorized to set aside, at its discretion, a number of shares of the common stock without par value of this corporation for sale or issuance to the employees or other services-rendering person(s) or entity of this or to this corporation and of its subsidiaries upon terms set at the discretion of the Board of Directors, including and not limited to acquisition of shares through stock options. Nothing in this Article shall constitute an obligation by the corporation or its Board of Directors to actually issue such shares. In absence of a Board of Director's actual issuance of shares under this Article to anyone, the Board of Directors is equally authorized to use the corporate positions and amounts of stock herein specified as an index of compensation for services rendered payable to the respective person or entity. In this case, the person or entity is not a shareholder of the corporation and shall not be entitled to receive any shares certificate.

The President shall be authorized to allot the shares of common stock set aside by the Board of Directors and reserved for the above-described purposes, to subscribers in the proportion that the subscription of each person or entity bears to the total amount of common stock subscribed for by all other shareholders, and that the President is authorized to make such allotment, among the new subscribers, of shares not allotted because of fractional subscriptions resulting from this method of allotment, as in his discretion seems most beneficial to this corporation.

Upon the separation of an employee or entity from the corporation, including and not limited to whether by resignation, termination, death, law, or other, the corporation, or its assigns, shall for 90 days thereafter have the right to repurchase the shares issued to any person or entity under this Article, at its election. In order to effectuate the purposes of this Article, any shares so purchased shall be issued to a Trustee, and shall be held by it in trust for the parties under these Articles of Incorporation, until such time, if any, as this corporation, or its assigns, shall elect to repurchase the said shares under the terms of these Articles of Incorporation. All dividends upon the said stock during said period shall be paid to the shareholder as they become due, and the shareholder shall have the right during the period to vote the stock at all meetings of this corporation, but the shareholder shall not pledge or transfer said shares, or otherwise prevent the carrying out of the terms of this Article. In the event that this corporation, or its assigns, shall elect under this Article to repurchase the shares, it shall pay a price for the shares set by the Board of Directors if no outside price exists therefor to the Trustee, and the Trustee shall thereupon transfer the shares to this corporation, or its assigns, and pay over the purchase price to the shareholder or her executors or administrators or assigns. If, having the right to repurchase said stock, this corporation, or its assigns, shall elect not to do so, said Trustee shall thereupon, and after 90 days after the separation of the shareholder from the corporation as an employee, transfer the same to the shareholder or her executors or administrators or assigns, whose title thereto shall be subject to all other provisions of these Articles of Incorporation.

Shares issued for services shall be conditioned upon receipt by the corporation of services reasonably worth the face value of the shares given therefor. In accordance with the Model Business Corporation Act and these Articles of Incorporation, the judgment of the Board of Directors or the

The Board of Directors, the shareholders, or the President shall be vested with the power to forfeit shares issued under this Article for the employee's failure to comply with the terms of this Article.

Options to purchase shares in accordance with this Article, and to be issued as consideration for future services or past services shall be issued on the condition precedent that the shareholder renders all her efforts to the company's business as the corporation's priorities require.
