To Whom It May Concern:

On September 5, 2000, I received a second notice to file the 2000 Uniform Business Report. This surprised me, since I sent my report on February 27, 2000 with check # 2008 for $150.

Subsequently, I called the bank and looked over my bank statements to see if the check had cleared. There was no evidence of the check clearing.

We spoke to a representative at your office and she told us to send this letter of explanation and ask that you waive the penalty and accept the new check of $150.

I am also including a copy of my computerized check register for that period.

This is being sent registered mail, return receipt requested to insure delivery.

Thank you,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Ron Hansen, President".

Ron Hansen, President
