To Whom It May Concern:

I have had various problems trying to file for 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report. This is the third attempt to file with the state. It is very important to me that this issue is resolved.

I had originally filed in the spring to avoid any penalties. My paperwork was never received and my check was never cashed. When I received a second notice in the mail I contacted your office and was told to send a letter explaining my situation. I sent a letter along with my check and the paperwork was returned to me, minus the cover letter.

I contacted your office once again and spoke to Grace Watson who told me that everything was fine and I did not need to file. She faxed me paperwork for Central Florida Web which is not my company. After this I called 850-487-6059 and spoke to a Mr. Andy Dunlap. Mr. Dunlap told me that sometimes the cover letter like the one I had sent gets misplaced and to send another letter explaining my situation and to staple it to the other paperwork. Please call me by phone if there are any more problems. I do not want what my wife and I have work so hard to build, to be dissolved or penalized.

Sincerely,
