Re: Corporation Name: Beejo Investment, Inc.
Document Number: P97000063133

Dear Sirs:

In reference to your letter dated December 15, 1998, attached is a money order in the amount of $300.00, which should cover fees for the year 1998 and 1999.

Please note that I did not receive this letter until early February, as my return address on the letterhead was incorrect and does not exist (not your fault). I recently acquire the office space and was not yet provided with a written lease with the correct address. During the period that I was informed by your office that the letter was returned to the said address on the document, I made several attempts to contact the local post office, but was unsuccessful in obtaining the returned mail.

In late December, 1998, I received a bunch of mail, including the first Application for Reinstatement Notice, which was mailed to a Coral Springs Address instead of Coral Gables, which was my previous mailing address. In order to avoid further delay, I went ahead and sent in the First Notice, which I received in late December, 1998. However, I went ahead and reprinted the original letter I sent with the Notice which has the incorrect address of 6899 N. State Road 7, Tamarac address, instead of 4699 N. State Road 7.

I know this seem very confusing, but it is the truth. Attached are proofs of the letters to you, your responses with return envelopes attached, and checks.

I hope that after carefully reviewing my case, you will consider my humble request for reinstatement.

Sincerely,

Beverly O'Brien
President
