ARTICLE IX

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

a) The corporation shall indemnify any director or officer of the corporation who is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation or as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, association, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise:

1. Against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with an action, suit or proceeding (other than one by or in the right of the corporation) if he acted in good faith, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful; and

2. Against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of an action or suit by or in the right of the corporation, if he acted in good faith.

b) The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

c) No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation.

d) Any indemnification under section (a)(unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in section (a). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceedings, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable and a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by a majority of members of the corporation representing a majority of the total votes of the membership.

e) Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation from time to time as incurred, rather than only after the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding. Payment of such expenses shall be authorized by the Board of Directors in each specific case only after receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amounts if it shall later develop that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

f) The indemnification provided by this resolution shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the corporation's directors, officers, employees or agents may be entitled under the corporation's By-Laws, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to actions in their official capacities and as to actions in another capacity while holding such offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer or employee and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

g) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, indemnification provided under this resolution shall not include indemnification for any action of a director, officer or employee of the corporation for which indemnification is deemed to be against public policy. In the event that indemnification provided under this resolution is deemed to be against public policy, such an event shall not invalidate or affect any other right of indemnification herein provided.

h) The corporation shall have the power, but shall not be obligated, to purchase and maintain indemnification insurance to provide coverage for any liability asserted against any director, officer or employee of the corporation in any of his capacities as described in paragraph (a), whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her under this Article.

i) Any person requesting indemnification shall first look to any insurance maintained by the corporation for indemnification against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement (as described above). The corporation shall be obligated to indemnify such person (if entitled to indemnification by the corporation) only to the extent such insurance does not indemnify such person. In the event that any expenses, judgments, fines or amounts paid in settlement are paid pursuant to insurance maintained by such corporation, the corporation shall have no obligation to reimburse the insurance company.

ARTICLE X

Transactions in Which Directors or Officers are Interested

a) No contract or transaction between the corporation and one or more of its directors or officers, or between the corporation and any other corporation, partnership, association, or other organization in which one or more of its directors or officers are directors or officers, or have a financial interest, shall be invalid, void, or voidable solely for such reason, or solely because the director or officer is present at or participates in the meeting of the Board or committee thereof which authorized the contract or transaction, or solely because said officer's or director's vote is counted for such purpose. No director or officer of that corporation shall incur liability by reason of the fact that said director or officer may be interested in any such contract or transaction.
