To Whom It May Concern;

Enclosed is the paper work that was returned to me for the filing fee and annual report information. As stated before I would like you to consider accepting the application and $150.00 filing fee as I never receive a "first" notice. The address on this paper work is correct so I do not know why we never received the application.

My first conversation was with Carol and when I got this back I called and spoke with Shy. She informed me that I had sent this paper work to the wrong address and that she had just been notified of the correct address to mail my application back to. She said to return the paper work and the check for $150.00 and my request would be reviewed.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Patricia J. Altenburg, President
