Dear Mr. Shaun Toner

1-20-2004

I respectfully request you reinstate my corporation for the following reasons

- 1- This is the 4th Letter stating I never received the original form{ I request another copy which I am resending this date}
- 2- I have always filed within the time frame requested
- 3- I have sent the monies due in a timely manner, including the filing fee of $150 for 2003
- 4- I have sent 3 other letters to date to try and resolve this properly

I made numerous attempts by phone and via mail to rectify the matter and was assured each time it was resolved only to receive another letter stating it was in fact not corrected. I was told my letter was lost in the mailroom and that this time they had it fixed. Then on November of 2003, I received a letter from my attorney apologizing for the delay in getting me my forms [photocopy enclosed] I then again sent this out to your department. I respectfully request reinstatement and have also enclosed the fee for 2004 lest this happens again. I spoke to Diane this date and she said to forward the whole form again and a letter stating the above incidents. I hope we can resolve this matter as I am a very small entity who likes to do my business correctly and honestly. Please advise me if there is any problem this time. I was told each and every time there would be no penalty because I contacted the department each time and showed proof that I never received the form or notice. I also request that any future mailings be sent to my New York Address as noted above and I will personally, and no longer have an attorney, handle this matter in the future. Thank you for your time and help

Respectfully,

Deborah G Siegel
