To Whom It May Concern:

We regret not filing the Uniform Business Report on time. We moved last year and we did not receive the first notification. The notification that we did receive came to the old address and someone from that address delivered it to us. We were under the impression that this was the first notification and entered it into our computer as due on September 30th instead of the 10th. Today we are preparing the payment and realized that it was due on the 10th. We called your office and were asked to send the $550.00 with this letter of explanation that we hope you accept.

Cordially,

Gregory Banden
President
