To whom it may concern,

We had filed our annual report on April 27, 2001. On or around June 4th, 2001 we received a letter stating that the registered agent had not signed the report. We had the registered agent sign the report and we returned the documents via mail in late June. On or about July 2nd we checked by phone with the Division of Corporations to confirm receipt because it was not appearing on the website and our deadline was near and the day it was actually due was 7/4/2001, a holiday. We were told that it would take a few more days to process and that it was in fact okay.

This past week we received a notice of administrative dissolution or revocation. Upon checking with the Division of Corporations, we were informed that they had not received the documents sent in late June. This was the same office that had informed us that we had properly complied with their request on June 4th. During this call they stated that they would not have been able to confirm receipt over the phone unless it was updated in the computer. I pointed out that we had called on July 2nd because it had not been updated on the website.

We were then instructed to contact your office and request that the additional fee be waived and to have our corporation reinstated. We have paid the original $150.00 on time and complied, and followed up to make sure we complied, with the June 4th request.

All of the information that was submitted in April along with the correction (The registered agents signature) is included in this envelope. We hope that this letter and the attached documentation meets with your approval and the additional fee's will be waived.

If there is any additional information you require please contact us and we will provide it immediately

Sincerely,

Maria Rodriguez
