RE: Reinstatement of corporation status

Dear Mr. Toner:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation this morning, I have assembled the documents that we discussed. As you may recall, last Thursday or Friday, I received notification from your office that my corporation (Robert E. Senton, P.A.) had been dissolved for failure to file the 2003 Uniform Business Report and pay the filing fee of $150.00. Over the weekend, I was able to locate documentation showing that I had in fact submitted the report and fee in question. This documentation consists of a copy of the 2003 Uniform Business Report dated April 18, 2003, my corporate check, #5650, for $150.00, and a copy of the front of the envelope that it was mailed in. On Monday or Tuesday of this week, I went to the Division of Corporation to submit my documentation. They spoke with you and it was requested that I obtain a copy of the front and back of my check from the bank and then give you a call. I went to the bank and had them research my account history. According to the bank, after approximately six months, the check has still not cleared. They suggested that I place a stop payment on the check and reissue a new check. Taking their advice, I stopped payment on the check this morning. After doing so, I promptly called your office to discuss this matter.

It is my understanding, that upon submitting the above-referenced documentation, along with a copy of the stop payment order, and a replacement check in the amount of $150.00, you will promptly reinstate my corporation without any penalty, and delete any reference to this unfortunate mishap from my records. Thank you for help in resolving this matter. Please find enclosed the above-referenced documents.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert E. Senton". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Robert" and last name "Senton" being clearly distinguishable.

Robert E. Senton
