Dear Sir or Madam:

I recently received your "second" notice for filing the annual report for this company. Regrettably, the first notice and the second were mailed to the old address of the company—the Garden Street address. Fortunately, the current occupant of that address took the trouble to pass this second notice to me.

The address of T. W. Wright & Associates was changed to the 4 Port Royal Way address in March of 1998, and since that time all correspondence from other State of Florida agencies as well as federal agencies have been sent to the new address. I was not aware that your office had not made the change.

I called your office on August 6 to explain these circumstances, and the person to whom I spoke told me to mail in the annual report with the basic fee of $150 and this letter of explanation. Accordingly, I have included those documents in this correspondence.

Sincerely,

Timothy W. Wright
President
