United States and the State of Florida or any other state, territory, district or possession of the United States and all such activities or businesses as may be permitted in any foreign country. Without limiting the foregoing, the corporation shall have the power to:

- (a) To collaborate with allied professionals and associates of allied professionals.
- (b) To provide facilities by the lease, rent, acquisition or construction of suitable buildings, or parts thereof, to meet present and future requirements related to the business of the corporation.
- (c) To participate in the promotion and conduct of research and development activities related to the business of the corporation.
- (d) To prescribe the rules, regulation and privileges for the selection and management of the staff of the corporation.
- (e) Conduct business, have one or more offices in, and buy, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, and buy, hold, mortgage, sell, convey, lease or otherwise dispose of franchises in this state and in any of the several states, territories, possessions and dependencies of the United States, the District of Columbia and in foreign countries.
- (f) Purchase the assets of any other corporation, or partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise and engage in the same character of business.
- (g) Acquire, enjoy, utilize and dispose of patents, copyrights and trademarks and any licenses or other rights or interests thereunder or therein.
- (h) Take, hold, sell and convey such property as may be necessary in order to obtain or secure payment of any indebtedness or liability to it.
- (i) Guaranty, endorse, purchase, hold, sell, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of the shares of the capital stock, or any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by any other corporation of this state or government and, while owner of such stock, to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote such stock.

- (j) Purchase, hold, sell and transfer shares of its own capital stock from the surplus of its assets over its liabilities, including capital. Shares of its own capital stock owned by this corporation shall not be voted directly or indirectly or counted as outstanding for the purpose of any stockholder's quorum or vote.
- (k) Contract debts and borrow money, issue and sell or pledge bonds, debentures, notes and other evidences of indebtedness and execute such mortgages, transfers of corporate property or other instruments to secure the payment of corporate indebtedness as required.
- (l) Make gifts for educational, scientific or charitable purposes.
- (m) Indemnify any person made a party, or threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding against liability or their good faith acts and omissions to the extent provided by law.
- (n) Purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of subsection (m) hereof.
- (o) Enter into general partnerships, limited partnerships (whether the corporation be a limited or general partner), joint ventures, syndicates, pools, associations and other arrangements for carrying on one or more of the purposes set forth in this certificate of incorporation, jointly or in common with others, so long as the participating corporation, person or association would have the power to do so alone.

The foregoing clauses are both purposes and powers and the foregoing enumeration of specific powers does not limit or restrict in any manner the powers of the corporation.

Article III. Capital Stock

The maximum number of shares of stock that this corporation is authorized to have outstanding at any time is 1000 shares of common stock. The consideration to be paid for each share shall be fixed by the Board of Directors and may take the form of services rendered, cash, property or any other form with a value, in the judgment of the directors, equivalent to or greater than the full value of the shares.

Article IV. Initial Capital

The amount of capital with which this corporation will begin business shall not be less than $10000.00.
