To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter for an explanation of why my Annual report is late.

I recently opened my Corporation in August of 1997. Since the date of incorporation I have experienced personal financial problems as well as mental health problems (Depression). I have been withdrawn and confused, and presently under professional medical treatment. I am learning the procedures required in operating a corporation but sometimes missing important dates.

I hope this reaches your office soon enough to prevent Administrative dissolution of my corporation. I will also make sure future reports will be filed on time.

Sincerely,

Scott Murphy
