RE: Rothschild & Associates Inc.
Christiana Du Marchant Corporation
Artlines, Inc.

Dear Sirs:

I am writing to your office as a result of an office visit with my accountant yesterday as he completed my tax return for Artlines, Inc. another one of my company's. I proceeded to tell him that I do not recall sending in my annual report in May for 1998 on Artlines, nor do I recall filing my annual report for the above.

I called your office today and found out that not only Artlines is delinquent - but so were the annual reports for Christiana du Marchant & Rothschild & Associates.

I am concerned either that I may have not received proper notice, or items were lost in transit. I am writing to say that I would have paid fees due the state had I received notification and ofcourse need these company's to be properly "up to speed" as soon as possible. These notifications may not have reached me for the following reasons:

- 1) Artlines, Inc. I have just phoned the Mailbox where my P.O.Box was located - that box was cancelled about one year ago. Somehow I assumed the Artlines notice was being sent to my home at 5700 Coach House Circle Boca Raton FL 33486. The owner of the Mailbox kept this important mail and I am now sending in my dues and address change.
- 2) Christiana Du Marchant and Rothschild & Associates. Since last December I have been traveling for periods of time and having the post office hold mail for me and for certain periods forward mail to me. It is not surprising if somehow these notices were either lost or disgarded at the final destination, as much of my mail never reached me.

I have enclosed checks that hopefully cover the dues that should have been sent in last May. You have my assurance that I will be more cautious in the years to come.

Thank You.

Sincerely,

Joanne Rothschild
