Dear account Representative:

My husband and I are the owners of the two above small businesses. At the end of last year, I delivered our daughter prematurely. We also have a two year old son. The filing packets which go to our home address, were incorrectly delivered by the post office in to our neighbors mailbox, as we live in Homestead and it is very rural. Our neighbors were away and their house keeper brought the packets by some time later. I was at home with our new baby by that time and with all that was going on I simply misplaced them. We found them just a few days before we immediately made the payments. Apparently, I had put them in the car for my husband to bring to the office (we share office space) and they went under the seat. He didn't know to look for them because I put them there for him without mentioning anything about it. We did not find them until he finally took the car to be washed and we immediately sent you the payment.

We are both diligent people, making our best efforts to keep our small businesses running. It would be a hardship for us to pay the penalty. We have never been penalized or had other deficiencies. I made my best efforts at a difficult time and just goofed. We respectfully request that the penalties be waived and that our payment for $150 each together with our reports be accepted. Our checks for the additional $400 for each are enclosed to avoid further penalty if this is accepted. However, we respectfully request that the checks be returned or that we be credited accordingly. Thank you for your kind consideration.

Very truly yours,

Carmen R. Kyriakopoulos
