To whom it may concern,

After speaking with a representative from your office I was told to submit a letter along with my check for $300 covering 2002 and 2003's UBR filing fee. For some reason the mailing address was not updated and your notices were not being received by my accountant to file for each of the past two years. We thought all addresses were updated. Neither the IRS nor my bank notified us either of the inactive status. We have been filing quarterly with the IRS and making deposits in the corporation's bank account as well. We never knew that the corporation was not up to date with its UBR filing. Anyway, we have enclosed a check with this letter and have updated the mailing address once again. Thanks for your patience and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
Todd P. Freedberg
