ARTICLE VI - TRANSACTIONS BETWEEN PARTIES

No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and one or more of its directors or officers or any other corporation, firm, association, or entity, in which one or more of its directors or officers are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors, or a committee thereof, which authorized, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction, or because his/her or their votes are counted for such purpose, if:

Each shareholder may, if he desires, cast fewer than all the votes to which he is entitled at an election of Directors, but no ballot shall be valid if the total number of votes shown thereon is in excess of the total number of votes to which a shareholder casting such ballot is entitled.

At any such election the candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of Directors to be chosen, shall be elected, and an absolute majority of the votes cast is not a prerequisite to the election of any candidate to the Board of Directors.
