To whom it may concern, 8-20-02

I sent my uniform corporate form in with a check for $150 on June 1, 2002. after which I leave for the summer to our family farm in Ohio. Upon my return I found a notice informing me of my failure to submit said form, and that a late fee would now be assessed. I hope that you will waive the late fee as I was not available to receive notice. I have checked my bank records, and the check for $150 never cleared, nor did I get it back in the mail for postage. Please help me in my request for a waive of late fee.

Thank you,

Russell Harris
