Mr. Scott,

I am writing to you as per our telephone conversation this morning, Mon. July 20, 1998.

First of all I would like to thank you for taking time out from your busy schedule to help me.

I am sending a copy of the original letter & paper work for you to look at.

I called my ex-bookkeeper to try & find the correct dates as to when she was in the hospital. She was not in & did not return my call, (I left a message).

My ex-bookkeeper, Nina Willis, has been in & out of the hospital since Jan. 1998, for tests & therapy.

P.S. NOT IN OPERATION YET !!

To Whom it may concern,

On Friday June 26, 1998 I called your office & spoke to a young lady named Chaneeka.

I explained to her about the problem I was having with my bookkeeper, about how she had been in & out of the hospital and in doing so my book work had been neglected. My personal income tax was just filed on June 10. After all these delays, I decided to pick up my files. Upon going through my paperwork I found this Profit Corp. Annual Report.

I called your office as I stated above, and Chaneeka said to send a check for $150.00, along with this letter of explanation. I am very sorry for the delay. I will attempt to do my own bookkeeping from now on, eliminating this problem in the future.

Thank you for your attention and
THANKS David Jewell
