Dear Sir

I am writing you to request your assistance in this matter. This is the situation

I started this corporation in 1997 but never put it into activity due to the illness of both my parents, who simultaneously became ill and bed bound. I was their sole care taker so I was not able to continue the venture that I had started. They both since have passed away, my mother this April. The entire situation led me to a very stressful emotional time to the point that I moved away from my previous home. I did not notify you of my address change and therefore a lot of my mail has been lost. Recently on a visit to Miami, I received a package of mail and in it were the corporation filing fee. I am now sending you the fee of 150.00 and beg that you accept this filing fee for the corporation so that I can begin my venture once more. I did not make any money on this business and am hoping to get it on its feet at this time. I realize that my mailing is later than the due date but in all honesty this is the most I can afford at this time, due to all the medical bills still haunting me.

I hope that this will be handled with care and concern. I think that this idea for this business will become lucrative in the future, although I am starting from the basis once more.

Hoping to hear from you soon,

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Jennie Hurtado
