Gentlemen:

This letter is to explain the reason for the late filing of the enclosed documents, and to respectfully request an exception to any proposed penalty.

My office manager/assistant had been on prescription pain-killers to the extent that she became severely addicted to them. I was unaware of this problem and did not know she was concealing the fact that she was not performing the functions which were expected of her. She began embezzling money in order to pay for the drugs. When confronted, she admitted to both the addiction and to the embezzlement, and was promptly dismissed. It has been, however, an overwhelmingly difficult process putting the pieces back together.

Today we found these renewal applications hidden in a stack of papers. Naturally, we thought these forms had been filed months ago.

We beg your forgiveness of the late fees as we attempt to get our affairs back into an orderly fashion.

OR THE APPROPRIATE AMOUNT

We are sending $150.00 with each application and hope this meets with your satisfaction.

Thanking you in advance for your understanding and cooperation.

Yours truly,

FLICK INVESTMENTS, Ltd.
