Dear Sirs,

The reason for our late remittance of the filing fee is because I just returned on August from a one year business trip to Venezuela, where we have our home office, and did not receive the first notice to pay the filing fee on the mail, although I was mindful of it.

Therefore I kindly ask you to consider this special circumstance, since is the first time in three years that this happens, and accept my payment for the original filing amount of $150,00 (attached is check #501) since paying the current amount of $550,00 will be hard on our small company budget.

Thanks in advance for your kind attention to this important matter.

Yours truly,

Rodolfo G. Hoffmann
President
