To whom it may concern,

As per our phone conversation today, this letter is to explain why this annual report was not submitted on time. The transaction for the store I was purchasing fell through two days before closing. The doctor I was purchasing from reneged at the last minute. I had been working at the location for over a year and could no longer stay and be comfortable working for him. When I left, the doctor told me he would hold my mail for me for one month. This would allow enough time for all of my business accounts to get a change of address for Style Eyes. When I stopped in for my mail about two weeks later, the new employees told me that they were instructed to throw out anything that came for me. Therefore, I never received the first issuance of this report. Please do not penalize me for his unprofessional conduct. I am enclosing the hundred dollars you requested to accompany this letter. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Debra M. Wolicki
