m. To conduct business, have one or more offices, and hold, purchase, mortgage and convey real and personal property in this state and any of the several states, territories, possessions and dependencies of the United States, the District of Columbia, and in foreign countries.

n. To carry out all or any part of the foregoing objects as principal, factor, agent, contractor, or otherwise, either along or in connection with any person, firm, association or corporation.

o. To do all and everything necessary and proper for the accomplishment of the objects enumerated in its Articles of Incorporation, or any amendment thereof, or necessary or incidental to the protection or benefit of the corporation, and in addition to the specific powers herein enumerated, have any and all rights, powers, and privileges which are, can be or may be granted to corporations incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida, and in that connection to carry on any lawful business necessary or incidental to the attainment of the objects of the corporation, whether or not such business is similar in nature to the objects set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE III

The maximum number of shares of stock that this Corporation shall be authorized to have outstanding at any time shall be 100 shares of common stock of the par value of $100.00 per share upon which there shall be no preemptive rights except to the extent specified by the By-Laws.

The common stock shall be paid for at such time as the Board of Directors may designate, in cash, real or personal property, service, patents, leases or any other valuable right or thing, for the uses and purposes of the Corporation, and all shares of capital, when issued in exchange therefor, shall thereupon and thereby become and be paid in full the same as though paid for in cash at par, and shall be nonassessable forever and the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of any property, right or thing acquired in exchange for capital stock shall be conclusive.

ARTICLE IV

Restriction on Transfer of Shares. Any transfer of stock in the Corporation that shall have the effect of terminating or jeopardizing the status of the Corporation as an "S Corporation," as defined in Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or any successor legislation of similar import, shall be void ab initio.

ARTICLE V

This Corporation shall have a perpetual existence unless sooner dissolved by law.

ARTICLE VI

The initial registered office of this Corporation shall be at 300 West Reynolds Street, Plant City, Florida 33566, and the name of its initial registered agent is John V. Verner, Jr., whose address is 300 West Reynolds Street, Plant City, Florida 33566. The Board of Directors may from time to time move the registered office to any other address and may establish branch offices and other places of business as may be deemed expedient.

ARTICLE VII

The business of this Corporation shall be conducted by a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, and by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three members, to be determined by the By-Laws. Any officer may be a director and hold more than one office.

Each officer and director shall hold office until his successor shall be elected and qualified; provided, however, that a majority of the stockholders at either a regular or special meeting may remove any officer or director with or without cause. The duties and powers and functions of the officers and Board of Directors shall be as usually devolve upon such officers and directors, unless otherwise provided by the By-Laws.
