November 21, 1998

To Whom it may concern;

This notice of dissolution has caught us completely by surprise. We just opened for business in December 1997 and have been very diligent in taking care of any business matters immediately. Somehow, something went wrong in this particular situation. Incidentally, if we received notice in January 1998, it may have been disregarded as a bureaucratic error due to having just paid fee for corporation and things just going into effect. However, I have no recollection of having received the notice. We are a new business struggling for our survival and can assure you that this problem will not arise again. Please review our situation, as there was no wrongful intent on our behalf.

Sincerely,

Jay Zambory
President
