Dear Sir or Madam:

On July 2, 2003, Design Properties, Inc. received a late fee notice for the 2003 UBR. I sent an E-mail to your division which stated that we mailed the 2003 UBR for Design Properties on March 27, 2003 and the check for the $150 filing fee cleared our bank account on April 4, 2003. Leslie Sanders responded and said that your records indicate that you returned our report to us on April 3 for corrections.

Our registered agent had a change of name and address and we did not have the agent's signature on the original UBR. I did not think we needed her signature since she was our original agent. After reading the letter, I realized that I should have acquired her signature since the name of the entity changed. On April 16, 2003, I met with our agent and got her to sign the copy of the UBR. I mailed it back to the Division of Corporations on April 17, 2003.

I am attaching a copy of the signed UBR to this letter. I respectfully request that you waive the late fee since we filed the original UBR and paid the appropriate fee well in advance of the due date, and mailed the corrected copy to you before the due date.

I thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, please call me at (904) 764-6541, or E-mail me at ramiller@designcontainers.com.

Sincerely,

Regina A. Miller
