To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you on behalf of my client, Ciao Bella, Inc., document #P97000089346, and responding to your notice of administrative dissolution or revocation.

Ciao Bella, Inc. did not receive the Corporate Annual Report for 1998. The Company had been sharing a mailbox with another tenant and never received the form. Most of its mail had not been received as well and the Company had to request duplicate items. My client is a newly incorporated company and had the Company known that it was required to file this form, the Company would have requested a duplicate form as well. I recently became the accountant for Ciao Bella, Inc. The Company was not informed by its prior accountant that this form should have been filed in order to continue in existence.

I would like to request that Ciao Bella, Inc. be reinstated as a corporation doing business in the State of Florida. Attached is our application for reinstatement and a check in the amount of $150 for the Corporate Annual Report Fee. I would also like to request that any penalties be waived and that our payment be accepted for reinstatement based upon the above explanation.

Thank you for your cooperation and consideration.

Sincerely,

Barbara Taykan, for the firm
