To whom it may concern

I am sending this letter in response to a second notice of Annual Reports Filling notification. I sent in the first Annual Report on April 14, 1998. This was sent out along with all my tax information. The check I sent along with the filling papers should have been received shortly there after. I spoke to someone in your office on 7/1/98 who told me to send this letter along with another check and the form. They would wave the late fee as it was lost in the mail or at your office. I sent two of these fillings on the same day and neither one of them was received at your office. My neighbor in the same plaza as my office sent his out at the same time as mine and also got a second notice saying his wasn't received either. I checked with my local post office which assured me it was not lost by them. I would appreciate communication back on your part to resolve this issue. I have placed a stop payment on the first check I sent in so if it ever is received or found it cannot be processed. Thank You for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Kevin D. Clarke
