To Whom Ever:

- Annual Corp fees / 1st Coast Displays & Events

I never received your yearly statement to pay my dues of $150.00 (before May 1st.) for the upcoming year.

I've tried to call different Departments, with no luck for the right address to send this check # 5609 to — Even spent $4.00 to talk to someone for the correct form and address, but never got the information I needed — So I hope this gets to the right dept for payment this is for: 1st Coast Display & Events

Dear Sir,

Our client received an annual report and request for a filing fee in the amount of $550.00. Mr. Wilson never received the original report but did attempt to pay the filing fee of $150.00 in a timely manner. His letter dated April 29, 2004 evidences this. He was aware of the report deadline and made several attempts to obtain a report by contacting the Florida Department of State. He was unsuccessful in his efforts to obtain the report and decided to send a letter along with his payment of $150.00.

We have enclosed the signed report along with the original check, which was returned to Mr. Wilson. Also enclosed is a copy of his letter dated April 29, 2004. Because of Mr. Wilson's efforts to file the report and pay the fee in a timely manner, we ask that you please accept this report as being timely filed and waive any and all late filing fees.

Thank you for your help and understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

Stan Fowler
