Dear Sir or Madam:

The above referenced corporation is owned by Earl A. Woodard who is the sole stockholder and owner of the corporation. Mr. Woodard has been a client of mine for several years and has always been a very prudent about meeting all of his filing deadlines. During the latter part of 1999, Mr. Woodard opened a second lounge and incorporated it also. At the same time, he hired a manager to handle the financial duties of both corporations. Sometime in late May of 2000 Mr. Woodard discovered that the manager had failed to comply with his responsibilities, one of which was to pay and file the Uniform Business Report. Due to the manager incompetence both corporations were placed in severe financial straights. The manager was immediately dismissed. Mr. Woodard has been very busy the last few months trying to get caught up on all of his bills and get all of his vendors paid. It does appear at this point in time that the business is doing very well and is regaining its health do to the attention given to the corporation by Mr. Woodard. Mr. Woodard realizes that it was his responsibility to file this UBR in a timely manner. It would be greatly appreciated (due to these unusual circumstances) if the $400.00 penalty for failing to file the UBR by May 1 could be waived. You can be assured that this situation will not happen in the future.

Thank you for you consideration in this matter. If you have any further questions, or if I can be of further assistance please do not hesitate to contact me at the above referenced number.

Sincerely,

George Trenen Bush
