RE: Late Filing of Uniform Business Reports for Vision Quest Gallery and Emporium, Viktara Inc., and Winthrop Land Company

Dear Sirs,

After contacting your agency I was instructed by the customer service representative to write to explain the reasons for my late filing of Uniform Business Reports for my companies. I was unavoidably called out of town to attend to my step-father who passed away while I was there. I attended the funeral and assisted in preparations for the estate, which took about a week and a half. When I returned to work on Wednesday, May 3, 2001, I realized that I had not filed my reports. I believe you will understand my predicament in that I had family obligations and a death to contend with.

Winthrop Land Company and Viktara Inc. did not make money in 2000 and these penalties are a blow to the budget of both these entities. I hope you will understand and assist me in mitigating the late penalties assessed to my companies. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Roberta Carothers
