Re: J-Tia, Inc.
59-3467868

Dear Sirs:

We have recently been engaged by the taxpayer. The taxpayer informed us that they had just been notified that they were delinquent in paying the annual corporate fee. The taxpayers never received the original annual forms for filing.

Attached to this letter are the corporation reinstatement form and a check of $150 for payment of the 2000 filing fees. The taxpayer requests that no penalty for reinstatement be charged since the taxpayer relied on receiving blank forms for all necessary filing requirements of the corporation. In addition, the taxpayer never received the annual form packets for 2000. If the packets were received, they would have been aware of this filing requirement.

In the future, all filings will be done on a timely basis. If you have any additional questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

DAILY & TSAGARIS, PA
