To Whom it May Concern:

This letter is to let you know that I never received the first notice to file my annual report. I was not aware that I was suppose to file every year before May even if I did start the corporation in November '97. I did however, receive the second notice and I made a call to the Division of Corporations and was instructed to write this letter and enclose a check for $150.00 (which I have done).
I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Thank you,

Juliette Balboa
