In receipt of your 2nd Notice of the 1998 Profit Corporation Annual Report Packet, I am a bit shocked. I went into business with Robert Lewis at the end of 1997. Things didn't work out for us and he resigned from the company. He informed me that the agent (his accountant) had filed all the returns for 1997. This was obviously a lie since I am receiving this notice. His office forwarded none of these notices to me in the past. I put several forwarding address changes with the post office but never received a notice before this one. Robert Lewis has since been admitted to a hospital due to drug problems he is and was having.

My business primarily deals with consulting for computer programming. It is a small business and I only do it on the side since I have a full time job. The current balance of the company is about $150.00 just to keep the bank account open. I want to keep this company open as it shares my namesake but I cannot afford to pay this $550.00 penalty. I am submitting my report with no check as I ask for your lenience in this matter. It was truly beyond my control and I received no cooperation when contacting Robert Lewis about this. I even contacted your office to officially change my address and received a notice stating I owed a fine.

Respectfully yours,

Ron Blitz
President
