THIS CORPORATION shall also do any lawful business in the State of Florida and in the United States of America and in any foreign country and expand the business into as many diversified fields of endeavor for profit, which shall be lawful under the Statutes of the State of Florida now or as the said Statutes shall be amended. This corporation shall be governed in its operations, under the laws of the State of Florida.

ARTICLE IV. CAPITAL STOCK

THIS CORPORATION is authorized to issue 1000 shares of $.01 par value common stock, which shall be designated "common shares".

ARTICLE V. POWERS

THIS CORPORATION shall have the following powers:

1. All powers given to the Corporation under Florida Statute 607 in its present form or as it may be hereinafter amended, to exercise all powers that are presently conferred by law upon the Corporation, to do any and all things to the same extent as a natural person might or could do, and to enjoy all powers necessary and proper to effectuate the purposes of this Corporation.

2. To sue and be sued, complain and defend in its corporate name, and in all actions or proceedings.

3. To have or use a Corporate Seal, which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed, affixed or in any other manner reproduced.

4. To purchase, take, receive, lease or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property or any interest therein wherever situated, tangible or intangible.

5. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, create a security interest in, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

6. To lend money to, guarantee any obligations of, or otherwise assist any officer or other employee of the Corporation or of a subsidiary, including any officer employee who is a director of the Corporation or of a subsidiary whenever, in the judgment of the directors, such loan, guaranty or assistance may reasonably be expected to benefit the Corporation. Any loan so authorized may be with or without interest, secured or unsecured, without limitations, including a pledge of shares of stock of the Corporation as further restricted herein. This power is in addition to any other powers given at a common law or under any Statutes of the State of Florida.

7. To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof as further restricted herein.

8. To make contracts and guarantee and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates or interest as the Corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchise and income, subject any other restrictions herein.

9. To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds and take and hold real and personal property or security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

10. To conduct its business, carry on its operations and have offices and exercise the power granted by this act within or without the State of Florida.

11. To elect or appoint officers and agents of the Corporation and define their duties and fix their compensation.

12. To make and alter By-Laws, not inconsistent with its Articles of Incorporation or with the Laws of the State of Florida, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the Corporation.

13. To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes.

14. To transact any lawful business which the Board of Directors shall find will be in aid of governmental policy.

15. To pay pensions and establish pension plans, profit sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees and for any or all of the directors, officers and employees of its subsidiaries.

16. To be a promoter, incorporator, partner, member, associate or manager of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

17. To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

ARTICLE VI STOCKHOLDER RIGHTS

EACH HOLDER of common stock that has been properly issued and is then currently outstanding shall have the right to participate ratably in the earnings by way of dividends, when, as and if declared by the directors, usually in the exercise of their discretion, out of legally available funds. Moreover, each share has the right to participate in the net assets (after satisfying liabilities to creditors) upon liquidation and the right to participate ratably in the control of the Corporation by one vote (non-cumulative) per share. Except as otherwise provided by law, the entire voting power for the election of directors and for all other purposes shall be vested exclusively in the holders of the outstanding common shares.

ARTICLE VII PREEMPTIVE RIGHTS

EVERY SHAREHOLDER, upon the sale for cash of any new stock of this Corporation of the same kind, class or series as that which (s)he already holds, shall have the right to purchase a pro rata share of any new issue. Such preemptive rights must be exercised in writing within thirty (30) days after written notice of the existence of said new issue is sent to the shareholders.

ARTICLE VIII. LIMITATIONS ON RIGHT OF SALE ON SHARES

The shareholders shall not encumber or dispose of any shares of their present or future shares in the corporation except under the following terms:

1. (A) The party wishing to dispose or encumber his or her shares shall first obtain the written consent of all other shareholders.

(B) If no written consent is given, the proposed transferor shall give 30 days written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested of his/her intention to make such disposition. The other shareholder(s) shall then have the option within the 30 day period to purchase all of the shares. The option shall be in writing and shall be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the proposed transferor. The purchase price shall be the book value of the shares as of the date of the first notice, as determined by the Corporation's regular certified public accountant, according to generally accepted accounting practices. The accountant's determination shall be binding upon the parties. The purchase price shall be payable as follows: one half in cash when the shares are transferred, and one half by a promissory note payable in one year bearing interest at the rate of 5% per annum simple interest. If the shareholder(s) do not agree to purchase any or all of the shares offered for sale, all the restrictions imposed by this paragraph shall be suspended for a period of six months, during which time the transfer may dispose of his/her shares. Any such shares as have not been disposed of within the six month period shall thereafter be subject to all restrictions of this paragraph. It is intended that the restrictions to the shares contained in this paragraph shall be in addition to all other restrictions required by election of this corporation as a Sub-Chapter S Corporation, and any conflict between these restrictions and those required of a Sub-Chapter S Corporation shall be interpreted so as to not disable the Corporation from its entitlement to Sub-Chapter S status.

2. Upon the death of any shareholder, the survivor(s) shall have the option to purchase all the shares owned by the decedent by serving written notice upon his or her administrator within 90 days of the qualification of such administrator. The purchase price and terms shall be the same as set forth in Article VIII, paragraph 1 above.

3. The provision restricting the sale of shares contained in these Articles of Incorporation shall terminate upon any of the following events occurring:

a. the corporation files bankruptcy or is appointed a receiver by a Court of competent jurisdiction for the management of its affairs;

b. the corporation is dissolved; or

c. any shareholder fails to exercise the option to purchase the shares of a deceased shareholder.
