Dear Madame:

This correspondence is in reference to our telephone conversation of July 28th 2000, at 4:05 PM, when I spoke to Kathy. It references Doc.# P97000097869 Federal ID # 65-0795741.

When I first received the form for the Corporation Tax Fee, which was to include the $150.00 fee, I gave this to my Tax Consultant; but, at this time I did not have the $150.00 fee to include with the form. I totally forgot that this was owed until I received the second reminder, I gave this to the accountant along with my other tax items and didn't realize that it hadn't been paid as to date. This was a mistake on my part, but, also on my tax consultants part too. She forgot to mention it hadn't been paid yet, and I was only reminded when she called me last week.

I respectfully request that I be allowed to file this form now, including the $150.00 initial fee, and not the much higher fee now due. It was purely an oversight on my part, as well as my tax consultant, as she was very busy with other accounts other than mine. This will not happen again.

Thanking you in advance for your assistance and co-operation in this matter.

Respectfully Yours,

Andrea Schusselbauer
President
